If your project is shortlisted we will contact you and may request further information. The initial round of judging is based entirely on the details on this form and, more importantly, the images of the outside and inside of your house that you provide with your entry. These do not need to be of professional quality but in order to portray your home in the best way these should be comprehensive and, if possible, taken on a bright day with a well-lit interior.

Rules of entry. 1. The competition is open to all UK residents aged over 18 except for employees of The Telegraph plc and Homebuilding & Renovating magazine and their families. 2. The closing date for entries is 31st July 2010. 3. Responsibility cannot be accepted for entries lost, damaged or delayed in transit. 4. Only one entry per person is allowed but photocopied entry forms will be accepted. 5. No cash alternatives will be offered in lieu of any additional prizes that may be offered. 6. We cannot guarantee the return of entries, including drawings and photographs. 7. Details of entrants and their projects (not including specific location details) may be published in The Daily Telegraph and Homebuilding & Renovating magazine at the discretion of the editors and may be used in publicity material (including publicity material used by the sponsors). 8. The judges' decision will be final and unchallengeable. No correspondence will be entered into. 9. The judges reserve the right not to award prizes in any category if entries do not reach the required standard. 10.
